GIRLS ON FILM

Poseurs and camera shy alike, here's your call to arms, so to speak. Local fashion-show producer Rhonda Sargent Chambers is assembling a fashion event June 1, celebrating the 20th anniversary for retailer Blair Delmonico and benefitting The Fashionistas, the legion of local Dallas' fashion elite on a mission to preserve the city's fashion heritage under the Dallas Historical Society's umbrella. Celebrity makeup artist Penny Sadler will offer up camera-ready makeup tips, and former model, media presence and social swell Mattie Roberts will give guests picture-posing pointers as well as social do's and don'ts. Don't smile to big, she says. And arms can transform from thick to thin with a simple twist. Alternative skincare treatments will be discussed by Dr. Raul Rodriguez, and topping of the event, Blair Delmonico's David Salvatore will discuss fabrics and how to spot quality garments. So how does one get in on The Fashionista action? Become a member for $200. For information, visit www.thefashionistas.org. —Stacy Girard
