Skin-sational!

“Without exfoliation, products give little to no benefit. For a bride-to-be, I recommend beginning intensified, at-home skincare at least two weeks before the big day. Natura Bissé’s Glyco Extreme peel is a terrific product for accelerating the renewal process. It’s a gentle peel that does not cause redness or irritation and is safe to use twice a week. After the peel, you’ll want to apply products that are high in vitamin C to achieve a natural glow. I see fantastic results from Natura Bissé’s C+C Vitamin Complex serum followed by their C+C Vitamin cream with SPF 10. Following this regime again on the morning of the big day will help brides look their absolute best.” —Mallory Jones, esthetician, The Ritz-Carlton Spa, Dallas, ritzcarlton.com

Crowning Achievement

“For the wedding day [hair] has to be Oribé. Their products have a gentle jasmine fragrance that doesn’t compete with perfume, and they’re very light and can be layered. Oribé’s Après Beach Wave and Shine Spray holds waves; the Impermeable Anti-Humidity spray controls humidity and the dry texturizing spray gives incredible body to the hair.” —Ceron, Ceron Hair Studio at Halcyon Days Salon and Spa at Neiman Marcus NorthPark, neimanmarcus.com

Close-ups Allowed

“It’s important to prep the skin so the makeup stays. I like Laura Mercier oil free primer. Or, for oilier skin, Clinique Pore Refining Solutions correcting serum. I also love the water-resistant Aqua Creamliner and Aqua Rouge lip colors by Make Up For Ever. They stay on and you can create your line as thin or thick as you like.” —Penny Sadler, independent makeup artist, pennysadler.com

Painted Glory

“I like Chantecaille’s Fruit and Flower Acids mask to exfoliate the hand and make it look youthful, finishing with their retinol hand cream with rose and vitamin C moisturizer. For nails, one of my favorite colors for brides is Tom Ford Beauty’s nude called Naked. It’s a long-lasting polish. I also like CND’s UV Color Coat bake-on polish in Romantique. It will stay on two to three weeks with no chips or scratches and it doesn’t get dull. It will take you right through the honeymoon.” —Joey Flores, nail technician, Frederic Fekkai, Highland Park Village, fekkai.com
